

Songbird Music and The Bellevue Club Present:
A MUSICAL JOURNEY ACROSS MANY TIME ZONES AND TIME PERIODS

Friday May 28, 2010, Cocktails beginning at 5 p.m.
Dinner at 5:30 p.m., and the music will begin at 7 p.m.

World musician, singer, songwriter, Lauren Pomerantz will share a gorgeous tapestry of music from different places, cultures, and time periods that have impacted her life. Lauren will select a musical offering of her favorites, chosen from a 30 year musical career.

Accompanying herself on dulcimer, her highly acclaimed soprano voice will surround you with the sweet sounds of original and traditional ballads, folk songs and chants, sung in English, Sephardic-Ladino, Hawaiian, Native American, and tones of the Middle Pillar.

The music will be emotionally expressive, spiritually expansive, and energetically enlivening!

Donations accepted. For more information please contact Lola Eck, manager@laurensongs.com, cell: 925-330-2524.

Directions: The Bellevue Club, 525 Bellevue Avenue, Oakland, CA 94610, tel 510.451.1000, www.bellevueclub.org/contact.php. The Bellevue Club is one mile from downtown Oakland and 11 miles from downtown San Francisco. The Club has ample parking in an enclosed garage.